Structural Steel Works at site

Façade contractors should NOT be allowed to do structural works of any nature (except the framework required for installation of façade cladding members). All structural works should be done by the RCC contractor or specialized structural steel contractors.

Generally, for canopies etc, same should be designed prior to execution of RCC works of the concerned levels and insert plates should be embedded in the concrete, rather than using hilti etc.